TOR to engage a consultant to support adoption of international public sector accounting standards (IPSAS) and to produce an updated financial and accounting procedure manual for HESPI

April 2024, Addis Ababa, Ethiopia

1. Background

The Horn Economic and Social Policy Institute (HESPI) is a regional policy research Institute and a think tank established to promote high-quality socio-economic policy research, analysis and dissemination; provide policy advisory services and institutional capacity building to assist the governments, private sector actors and other stakeholders in the IGAD region. As a reputable home-grown organization, the Institute recognizes that to realize its ambitious programmatic and operational goals, it requires robust financial and accounting system which in turn contributes to its resources management integrity. The effective financial management and accountancy service is also an objective verifier toward accountability to beneficiaries, donors, partners, to its board, etc., and to give Value for Money.

HESPI has established and instituted its financial management and reporting function based on the Generally Accounting Procedures (GAAP). However, under the African Capacity Building Foundation (ACBF) supported program called “Strengthening African Leadership for Climate Adaptation (SALCA), HESPI is looking into adopting International Public-Sector Accounting Standards (IPSAS) in its financial management and reporting to have internationally uniform financial reporting system and enhance its accountability and transparency.

Moreover, HESPI aims to strengthen and elevate its Financial Governance and Accountancy function and plan to review and update its Financial and Accounting Procedure Manual as a result of some forward-looking push factors. Therefore, the new manual to incorporate procedures to adopt IPSAS and deploy new accounting software in the Institute’s financial system, the manual needs to be more comprehensive to address financial management requirements of diverse donors and also the new manual should have space to engulf financial and accounting procedures of other IGAD member countries as HESPI is opening regional offices in IGAD member countries. Moreover, the updated manual is believed to address the changing financial management landscape both externally and internally which necessitate adjustments with a forward looking orientation.
